“"By the omnipotent God, and on the salvation of my soul, I here declare to you earnest seekers, in pity to your earnest searching, the whole Philosophical Work, which is only taken from one subject and perfected in one thing. For we take this copper, and destroy its crude and gross body; we draw out its pure spirit, and after we have purified the earthy parts, we join them together, thus making a Medicine of a Poison.”

- The Stone of the Philosophers

The four ordeals, from Atalanta fugiens, by Michael Maier, 1618.

“...whosoever hath this medicine, he hath an incomparable medicine above all treasures of the world. Praise God.”

- The Bosom Book of Sir George Ripley
